

ACCEPTING Deafness

Accepting your Deaf child

This will require a change in your thinking.

Deafness is not something that will prevent your child from growing and developing physically.

But you need to be aware of it in order to support your child's social-emotional and educational development.